Dearest Angels, beloved messengers of the Divine,

I come into your holy presence with wishes and intentions that are near and dear to my heart.

Fill me with hope, inspiration, and a sense of deservedness, so that I may indeed fulfill them.

Give me clear vision that I may see through any self-imposed illusions of limitation and lack, and hold me within your embrace of unconditional love as I make the changes I need to make and find the courage to transform.

Walk with me, dear Angels, and illuminate my path, whispering words of loving encouragement and infinite possibility so that I may remember my magnificence.

Shine your Light on every shape and contour of my desire so that I may recognize it when it appears, and give me all of the crystalline focus, perseverance, and devotion needed to make it so.

And when I have done all that I can, I pray you will enfold my intentions within your angel wings and uplift them into the highest vibration of my good. In that moment I will bless and surrender them up to God for the attainment of their Divine Perfection.

Thank you, Beloveds.

With grace and ease, Amen.
